Public Announcement

This is to notify all concerned, as well the general public, that Medianet Private Limited (hereinafter “Medianet”) holds the media rights license of FIFA World Cup 2026™ for the region of Maldives. With the authorization of FIFA™, Medianet has granted the sublicense rights to live broadcast FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches to the following parties;

- TVM and YES TV owned by Public Service Media (PSM), and
- ICE Network owned by Island Communications and Entertainment (ICE)

PSM have been granted the rights to live broadcast FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches through the licensed channels on Medianet approved mediums for residential customers only.

Commercial (Resorts / Hotels / Guesthouses etc.) customers who wish to obtain live broadcast rights for FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches must make the necessary arrangements directly with Medianet Private Limited.

Such commercial customers will receive the authorized live broadcast feed exclusively through ICE Network channels on the Medianet platform, subject to the terms of the commercial license issued by Medianet. All live match commentary provided under such commercial arrangements will be in the English language.

The sublicense holders do not have the rights to broadcast the matches via streaming or free-to-air services. Furthermore, live broadcasting of any matches through any social media platforms or any other internet-based platform is prohibited. In addition to this, it is also prohibited to commercialize the live broadcast of FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches on any public screens open to public using the feed of any sublicense holder.

All concerned and public in general is hereby advised and cautioned that it is strictly prohibited for any party, other than those sublicensed by Medianet, to broadcast any matches of FIFA World Cup 2026™, via any medium in the region of Maldives. Any unauthorized broadcasting of any FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches will be in violation of FIFA™ Regulations, International Law, International Conventions that Maldives is party to, as well as Laws of Republic of Maldives. Despite this notice, if anyone is found to be carrying on any such prohibited broadcasting of FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches, Medianet shall take necessary legal actions against any such party. Furthermore, parties who acquire service through any such unauthorized service provider / broadcaster shall also be subject to legal actions in accordance with this notice.

We appreciate and thank the public for all the support in our effort to broadcast FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches to the viewers and general public of Maldives.
